My dear Julian,

I submit the enclosed card with its reference to Fred for your arbitration. As I read it,
I understood that both Fred & I were implicated in the same astounding incident. I think you will agree that the construction is such that it will bear almost any interpretation.
I also enclose a letter which you may give your mother, but I should like it back. It asks certain questions about you - questions which I have had, alas, to answer in the negative.

Yr. Virginia

My dear Julian

Could you possibly show your good heart by bringing me back fifty voltigeur cigars? in a box.

One declares them, and they make no fuss. But dont bother if in hurry. and torment unutterable.

I will repay.

But I expect this is too late.

I am as you see inventing an entirely new style, but what about yours? Come and dine on your way through.

Aunt Virginia Woolf.
